San José, California

Announcement of Position Availability
Subject to Budgetary Approval
Athletic Training

Job Requisition Number (JRN): 012118

Rank: Assistant or Associate Professor, Tenure Track

Qualifications:
1. Doctorate (ABD considered), BOC Certified in good standing, and specialization in Athletic Training are required.
2. Demonstrated ability to teach undergraduate and graduate level courses, possibly teach general education and physical activity classes, supervise theses, supervise internships, and advise in the specialization.
3. Knowledge and understanding of athletic training room, as well as related equipment, instruments and procedures.
4. Ability to work with and assist colleagues in conducting, and possibly directing, an accredited undergraduate athletic training program that integrates athletic training in the broad perspective of Kinesiology.
5. Ability to (a) pursue external research funding through the development of grant proposals and/or to participate in athletic training research within and outside the department and (b) publish research material in professional journals and present papers at professional meetings.
6. Ability to direct graduate student research in athletic training and related areas at the Master’s level.
7. Maintain membership in appropriate professional associations.
8. Ability to work with colleagues in the maintenance and ongoing growth and development of athletic training curricula at the undergraduate and graduate levels.
9. Applicant should have awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:
1. Primary responsibility to teach athletic training and related course work at the undergraduate level. Teaching assignment may include teaching general education, activity courses, and graduate coursework, in addition to committee work, and student advising and intern supervision at undergraduate and graduate levels. Ability to teach upper division writing to majors is particularly desirable.
2. Assist in, and possibly direct, the accredited undergraduate athletic training program.
3. Conduct research, develop grants, present professional papers, and publish in pertinent journals.
4. Serve on department and university committees as appropriate.
5. Establish liaison with outside enterprises in research and other endeavors as appropriate. Conduct personal research, supervise graduate student research, and serve on graduate thesis committees.
6. Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.
