Job Requisition Number (JRN): 012162

Rank: Temporary Faculty Full-time Lecturer appointment in the School of Library and Information Science (up to 3-years based on satisfactory annual performance review). Appointment is on an academic year basis.

Qualifications: Master of library and information science degree. Desirable: an earned doctorate in library and information science or equivalent. Evidence of published research and the potential for developing a strong research record. Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities: Manage all field courses, professional experience, and internships. Lead the School's culminating experience (research papers, e-portfolios). Develop a network of associates at local, national, and international levels to promote the School's outreach programs and degrees. Assume a leadership role in the professional community. Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 21, 2006

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedures: For full consideration send a letter of application, vita, statement of teaching interests/philosophy and research plans, and contact information for at least three references by December 1, 2005 to:

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 919,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

SJSU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer committed to nondiscrimination on the bases of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender status, marital status, pregnancy, age, disability, or covered veteran status consistent with applicable federal and state laws. This policy applies to all SJSU students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose.
