California Forum for Diversity in Graduate Education

Saturday, October 12, 2019 | Sonoma State University
8:00 am-4:00 pm

Open to: Sophomores | Juniors | Seniors | Master’s Candidates

(minimum GPA of 3.0 recommended for all students)

The Forum is an all day event designed to acquaint students from underrepresented groups with the academic and career opportunities associated with advanced study in a wide range of disciplines.

The forum will offer workshops on
- How to Pay for Grad School: Before, During, and After
- Demystifying the GRE
- How to Prepare for the GRE
- The Relation of the Master’s to the PhD
- How to Select, Apply to, & Prepare for Graduate School
- Undergraduate Research Opportunities
- How to Write a Winning Statement of Purpose
- Keys to Success and Survival in Grad School
- Successful Strategies for Acquiring Strong Letters of Recommendation and subject specific workshops on

- Physical Sciences & Math
- Arts & Humanities
- Life Sciences
- Social Sciences
- Engineering & Computer Science
- Education
- Behavioral Sciences
- Health & Human Services

Plus! Graduate Recruitment Fair
Featuring 150+ recruiters from across the nation

The Forum will provide FREE LUNCH as well as transportation to Host Campus.

Register now at http://www.caldiversityforum.org/register (password is seawolf2019)

— space is limited!

For more information and to confirm if you plan to ride the bus, please email Sharon Willey in Enrollment Management at sharon.willey@ssj.edu