Types of Allowable Employment

- Volunteer, unpaid positions, self-employment are NOT allowed.
- STEM-eligible employers must be listed in E-Verify and have E-Verify Company Identification Number or valid E-Verify Client Company Identification Number.
- Student must be bona fide employee of the employer; have a bona fide employer-employee relationship.” The employer may not be the students’ “employer” in name only.
- Start-up business okay as long as regulatory requirements are met.
- Employer that signs Form I-983 must be same entity the employs the student, provides the practical training experience.
Allowable Employment

Temporary or Staffing Agencies, Third-Party Worksites

• Staffing and temporary agencies may employ students under STEM OPT program but only if agency provides the practical training experience to the student; maintain a bona fide employer-employee relationship with student.

• Training experience may take place at another site other than the employer’s principal place of business as long as all training obligations are met.

• STEM OPT employer may not assign or delegate its training responsibilities to a non-employer third party (e.g. client/customer, employees of the client/customer, or contractors of the client/customer).

• Temporary or staffing agency cannot complete and sign Form I-983. Only E-Verify employer providing the actual training relevant to the student STEM degree filed is authorized to complete and sign Form I-983.

Submit your Form I-765 STEM OPT application to USCIS:

• Within 60 days of the STEM OPT I-20 issue date, listed on page 1. The issue date is next to the advisor’s signature.

• Before the end date of your current OPT work authorization expiration date listed on your EAD. Please account for mail or delivery time.

• To avoid processing delays or receiving a RFE (Request for Evidence), review your application materials for completeness before mailing your packet to USCIS.

• Make a copy of your entire STEM OPT application for your records.

• Request tracking and/or delivery confirmation of your I-765 STEM OPT application to the appropriate USCIS lockbox. For the mailing address, see here.
While I-765 application is pending

While Form I-765 STEM OPT application is pending

- You will receive Form I-797C Notice of Action or filing receipt within 2 to 4 weeks after mailing your application to USCIS.
- Retain the filing receipt should you need to inquire about the status of your STEM OPT application. The receipt or case number is located in the upper left corner of the document, next to the receipt date.
- Verify the spelling of your name, date of birth, and address on I-765 receipt.
- If there is an error on the receipt contact USCIS Customer Service.
- If you lose the receipt it may be difficult to replace. If you did not receive the receipt notice in the mail, contact USCIS NCSC to request a duplicate copy if possible.

Case Status Updates. ISSS recommends you sign up for an account at USCIS Case Status Online, click on “Sign Up” button. This allows you to receive automatic updates to monitor your case.

Case Inquiries. You can submit an inquiry using Case Inquiry tool, e.g. if you do not receive your receipt or your application is pending for more than 90 days.

Address Changes. Update your address online.
Request for Evidence (RFE)

• If information is missing from your application, USCIS may send you a RFE notice by mail. Receiving an RFE does not mean your application has been rejected. Carefully read the RFE notice as to the additional documents you will be required to submit.

• Getting an RFE will delay the processing of your application. Be sure to reply to the RFE with the required documentation by the given deadline.

• USCIS may return the entire application to you if, for example, you forget to sign your I-765, or check amount is incorrect, etc.

• Should your application be denied USCIS will inform you by mail. Please read the notice for the denial reason.

• Contact an ISSS advisor if you need assistance with interpreting an RFE or rejection notice. Be prepared to provide ISSS a copy of the RFE.
Employment Authorization Document (EAD)

- Average processing time at USCIS is 90 days or 3 months. Employment authorization is automatically extended for up to 180 days while STEM OPT application is pending.
- After you received your EAD card, review the card information: check spelling of your name, DOB, authorization dates, etc.
- If an error is made my USCIS you may need to send back the EAD to be corrected.
- If error is made by you, depending on severity, you may need to re-file for a corrected EAD. Contact ISSS advisor if you need assistance.

- Present your STEM OPT EAD to your employer as proof of legal work authorization.
- Provide ISSS a photocopy of the STEM OPT EAD.
- If you receive an approval notice (Form I-797A) but not the EAD card (sent separately) please first check with your local post office for delivery confirmation/returned mail/undeliverable mail; family members, housemates if he/she received your mail before contacting ISSS for assistance.
Travel Information

Travel while STEM OPT application is pending

• There is a higher risk associated with travel and return while STEM OPT application is pending, especially after the current OPT has expired. If there is a problem with your application you may not be able to respond to USCIS in a timely manner, delaying the processing of the STEM OPT EAD.

• If your STEM OPT application is denied while outside the U.S., your original OPT EAD has expired, you will not be able to re-enter the U.S.

• Avoid long absences from the U.S. during STEM OPT period. Time spent outside the U.S. may be counted as unemployment.

• Attempting to re-enter the U.S. close to the expiration date of your regular OPT/STEM OPT can be risky.

• If your F-1 visa has expired, obtaining a new F-1 visa at U.S. consulate or embassy can be risky.

• You must not enter in U.S. in another status; doing so may result in the loss of your STEM OPT eligibility.
Completing OPT & Grace Period

Grace Period

• You have a 60-day grace period following end of STEM OPT work authorization. Those that have entered the 60-day grace period are not authorized to work.

• Those that are beneficiary of a filed and receipted cap-subject H-1B application may receive a cap-gap extension. For more information, see USCIS cap-gap regulations.
  • The automatic gap-gap extension starts when F-1 status and work authorization expires and, unless terminated, ends on September 30, on October 1 the approved H-1B employment begins.
  • Extension of status will automatically terminate if student’s H-1B petition is denied, withdrawn, revoked, rejected, not selected, or if change of status is denied or withdrawn even if H-1B petition is approved for consular processing. Student will have 60-day grace period from date the extension of status terminated or from the program end date, whichever later, to depart the U.S.
