San José State University
San José, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Department of Kinesiology
Specialization: Biomechanics
Job Opening ID (JOID): 24696
Rank: Assistant Professor

Qualifications:
- Doctorate in Biomechanics or closely related field by time of appointment
- Demonstrated ability to teach classes in biomechanics at the undergraduate and graduate levels
- Evidence of scholarly promise, professional engagement, and ability to seek external funding where appropriate
- Ability and desire to serve on thesis committees, supervise theses/projects, and advise in both the graduate and undergraduate programs
- Demonstration of strong writing and oral communications skills
- Applicants should demonstrate awareness of and sensitivity to educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Preferred:
- Biomechanical scholarship focusing on areas related to health and wellness, exercise as medicine and/or physical activity and health promotion
- Evidence of mentoring diverse student populations

Responsibilities:
- Teach introductory and advanced classes in biomechanics at the undergraduate level, including introductory biomechanics, biomechanical assessment of movement as well as graduate courses in biomechanics
- Ability to teach in other areas of the undergraduate and graduate programs, such as research methods and general education and/or the physical activity programs
- Develop new curriculum at the undergraduate and graduate levels as needed
- Responsibility (or co-responsibility) for the continued development and maintenance of the biomechanics research laboratory, including software, hardware, and other technologies related to teaching and research in biomechanics
- Membership and participation in appropriate professional associations
- Seek, where possible, collaborative research opportunities and professional relationships with department, college, university and community partners
- Conduct research, seek external funding where appropriate, present professional papers, and publish in professional journals
- Serve on department, college, and university committees as appropriate
- Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August, 2019
Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedure:
For full consideration, send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/philosophy, research plans, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by October 12, 2018 to http://apply.interfolio.com/53501

Questions may be directed to: Matthew Masucci, Chair – Dept. of Kinesiology. (408) 924-3021; matthew.masucci@sjsu.edu

Please include Job Opening ID (JOID) on all correspondence.

This position is an excellent opportunity for scholars interested in a career at an institution that is a national leader in graduating URM students. San Jose State University has achieved HSI (Hispanic Serving Institution) and AANAPISI (Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institution) designation; 40% of our student population are first-generation students and 38% are Pell-qualified. As a result, the university is ranked fourth nationally in increasing student upward mobility.

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University’s annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (http://www.sjsu.edu/police.)